Description of Physical and Landscape Features:
This is an altered vernacular style house. It has a hip roof with a gable dormer on the front and a shed dormer on the south side. A one story hip roof addition extends from the front of the house. This addition includes the entry to the house. The house is clad in asbestos ceramic shingles and sits on a poured concrete foundation. The windows are primarily 1/1 wood with fixed aluminum storms. Attached to the house is single car garage that has an addition at the rear.
