

Born Dec 29 - 1884
Piedcliff Iowa

graduated at Prosser a degree in Civil Engineering at Wash. State, Pullman, Wash., in 1910.

married the same year, Dec 24-10
Extra Stephens of Pullman worked for U.S. Reclamation Service in Yakima Valley then ~~with~~ starting as construction Engineer with the Southern Alberta Land and Irrigation Co. and ^{later} became the Chief Engineer.

Became City Manager 3 Oct. 19
'25, + served there for 21 yrs to
'47. During that time the Govt.
Housing authority drafted him to be ~~the~~ manager of the largest war housing project in the world, when he served in both positions manager of C.C. + airport.

was coordinator of Civilian defense of Clackamas County,
Treas of Clackamas Co.
Red Cross, past president of League of Oregon Citys (and director for many years) member of Am Soc Civ Eng, Life member of professional Eng of Ore and City Managers Assoc International -

and member of Industrial Committee of Chamber of Commerce, at Salem.
mason, member of Al Hodge Shrine, in Portland Ore. ^{Roder}

Congregationist - chairman
Board of Trustees of O.C.

Leaves family - wife Edna -
2 daughters Bernadine, - Mrs.
P.O. Hughes - and Iris -
Mrs Iris Smith, 2 grandchildren
Cary, and Linda, and sister Ethel - Mrs Ethel Spencer all of
E. B.

John Franzen
born Dec 27 1884
Paddy Iowa
grade & high school at Prosser Wa

a degree in civil engineering at Wash State in Pullman Wash)
in 1910

married Dec 24 1910 to Edna Stephens of Pullman Wa

Worked for U.S. Reclamation
services in Yakima Valley

Then starting as construction engineer with the Southern Alberta Land & Irrigation Co and later became their chief engineer

Became City Manager of Oregon City in 1925 and served there for 21 years to 1947. During that time the government Housing authority drafted him & he became manager of the largest war housing project in the world. Where he served in both positions

He was coordinator of civilian
defense of Clackamas County
- assure of Clackamas County Red

Cross, past president of League of Oregon cities (and director for many years) member of American Society of civil engineers. Life member of professional engineers of Oregon and International City managers association and member of Industrial committee of chamber of commerce at Salem. Mason, member of Al Kader Shrine in Portland Or Congregationist - chairman of Board of trustees at Oregon City

He became Salem's first manager in 1947 and served there over 9 years until retirement when they moved to Long Beach in 1956 to be near family