

Star Worlds (Limerick)

by Terry Hoffman

*When Star Trek came on the TV,
'twas something all brand new to see.
A creature in space,
or some alien race,
just allowed my mind to roam free.*

*The epic of Star Wars is known.
Luke's hunted by Empire's drone.
A princess is saved,
from dangers he braved.
They unite to take down the throne.*

*Han Solo and brave Captain Kirk, each one, at times, acts like a jerk.
Handsome and dashing,
picture them clashing.
We've learned to love each little quirk.*
