WHAT'S THE DEAL WITH... | THE READING RAINBOW

You may have noticed the colorful stickers on the spines of our children's books. Not only do they help staff get books back on the shelves quickly and accurately, they help guide readers through the collection. We call it The Reading Rainbow!

Each age range is assigned a color (light pink-purple). As the intended audience of the books gets older, the colors move through the color spectrum from Board Books on one end of the room to Young Teen books on the other. Young readers can easily move from section to section within the Children's Room as they grow!

A guide to the different sections and their age/grade ranges is posted on the end of the Bridging Fiction shelf.
