Mountain View Cemetery, established in 1854, is one of the oldest cemeteries in the West. The first known burial at the cemetery was in December 1847 for infant John Barclay, son of Dr. and Mrs. Forbes Barclay.

The second oldest headstone belongs to the former Dr. William Allen who died June 9, 1851. On April 29, 1863, William Livingston and Mary Holmes deeded five acres of land for $5 to the City Council of Oregon City for the use as a public cemetery. They also deeded one acre of adjacent land to the Masonic Lodge, also for a cemetery.

These two cemeteries are the two oldest sections of Mountain View Cemetery, which now includes 54 acres of property for burials.
