

How is this person different from me?
How is this difference a strength?

How did this story help me understand how someone else might feel?

How is this person the same as me?

How can I use what I learned in this story to stand up for others?