

RESOURCES FOR WINDOW RESTORATION

---

GENERAL RESTORATION INFORMATION

Early American Industry Association

<http://www.eaiainfo.org/>

A resource for tool collectors, dealers and users of the tools of early American industry. Holds an annual conference, summer workshops, meetings and publishes CDs and books.

English Heritage

<http://www.english-heritage.org.uk/>

Source of conservation grants, photo collections, publications, conservation principles, videos and more, with the goal of protecting and promoting England's historic environment.

John Leeke's Historic Homeworks

<http://www.historichomeworks.com/>

'Helping owners, tradespeople, contractors and professionals understand and maintain their historic and older buildings.' Includes window workshop videos, discussion forums, restoration reports and more.

National Trust for Historic Preservation

<http://www.preservationnation.org/>

Helping people protect, enhance, and enjoy the places that matter to them.' Source of funding, job postings, conferences and training, legal resources, case studies and more. Publishes Preservation magazine.

Old House Journal

<http://www.oldhousejournal.com/>

Print magazine geared toward restoration and preservation of historic homes. Contains multiple ads for purchasing sources. Online magazine allows you to search for historic house plans or old-house items and real estate. Includes a 'wanted' board.

Preservation Briefs from the National Park Service

<http://www.nps.gov/history/kps/tps/briefs/presbhom.htm>

Print resource illustrated with black and white images and available through the Government Printing Office. Publishes guides for preserving, rehabilitating and restoring historic buildings—more than 40 briefs in the 30+year series.

State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO)

<http://www.oregon.gov/OPRD/HCD/SHPO/>

Information about adding your house to the National Historic Registry, planning your project, and Oregon's historic preservation laws, rules and regulations. Provides a contractor resource list.

Woodworking Magazine

<http://www.woodworking-magazine.com/>

Publishes four print issues a year, free of advertisements. Focuses on fundamental knowledge for quality woodworking, describes techniques and shortcuts and reviews tools and materials. Website allows you to download a free issue.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Architectual Heritage Center

<http://www.visitahc.org/>

Non-profit resource center for historic preservation in Portland—offers exhibits, education opportunities, lectures, etc. Publishes a newsletter four times a year.

Historic Preservation League of Oregon

<http://www.hpdo.org/>

Offers a newsletter, lecture series and preservation easement program.

Oregon Preservation Alliance

<http://oregonpreservation.org/>

Preservation organization offering an online forum and regional preservation news.

LOCAL HARDWARE SOURCES

Aurora Mills Architectural Salvage

<http://www.auroramills.com/>

Bliss Restoration

1630 SE Rhine St., Portland, 97202 503-296-5284

Hippo Hardware

<http://www.hippohardware.com>

Rejuvination, Inc.

<http://www.rejuvenation.com>

Winks Hardware

<http://www.winkshardware.com/>

GLASS SOURCES

Acme Glass

2035 NE Alberta, Portland, 97211 503-281-0091

Bendheim

<http://www.bendheim.com/>

The Rebuilding Center

<http://www.rebuildingcenter.org>

STRIPPING SERVICES

Houck's Processing

<http://www.dipdoors.com>

TOOLS

Pacific Northwest Tool Collectors Association

<http://www.tooltimer.com/PNTC.htm>

Pagenwood Restoring

7783 SW Capitol Hwy, Portland, 97219 503-246-6777

Vintage Saws

<http://www.vintagesaws.com/>

NEW WINDOWS

Versatile Sash & Woodwork

<http://versatilesash.homestead.com/>